

---

Participants of the morning seminar „The interwar period in general context“

---

Prof. Claudia Kraft

Institut für Zeitgeschichte, Universität Wien

„Nationalizing Transnationalization? Knowledge production in interwar Europe“

Professor of Contemporary History (Cultural History, History of Knowledge and Gender History)

Prof. Peter Becker

Institut für Österreichische Geschichtsforschung, Universität Wien

„Where is the border? Nationalizing states and internationalizing agencies in Central Europe“

Professor of Austrian History, History of the 19th and 20th Century

Doc. Ota Konrád

Institute of International Studies, Faculty of Social Sciences, CU

„Czechoslovakia and Austria in the interwar period: Nation-state building after the collapse of the empire“

Assistant Professor of Modern History

Dr. Hynek Janoušek

Department for Contemporary Continental Philosophy, Institute of Philosophy, the Academy of Sciences of the Czech Republic

„On Why Oskar Kraus Wanted to Have Carnap Arrested: Some Remarks on Austrian Philosophy in Prague.“ hrdina